PART V. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT AND INSTRUCTIONS TO DEBTOR(S)

Before agreeing to reaffirm a debt, review the terms disclosed in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I above) and these additional important disclosures and instructions.

Reaffirming a debt is a serious financial decision. The law requires you to take certain steps to make sure the decision is in your best interest. If these steps, which are detailed in the Instructions provided in Part V, Section B below, are not completed, the Reaffirmation Agreement is not effective, even though you have signed it.

A. DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

1. What are your obligations if you reaffirm a debt? A reaffirmed debt remains your personal legal obligation to pay. Your reaffirmed debt is not discharged in your bankruptcy case. That means that if you default on your reaffirmed debt after your bankruptcy case is over, your creditor may be able to take your property or your wages. Your obligations will be determined by the Reaffirmation Agreement, which may have changed the terms of the original agreement. If you are reaffirming an open end credit agreement, that agreement or applicable law may permit the creditor to change the terms of that agreement in the future under certain conditions.
2. Are you required to enter into a reaffirmation agreement by any law? No, you are not required to reaffirm a debt by any law. Only agree to reaffirm a debt if it is in your best interest. Be sure you can afford the payments that you agree to make.
3. What if your creditor has a security interest or lien? Your bankruptcy discharge does not eliminate any lien on your property. A "lien" is often referred to as a security interest, deed of trust, mortgage, or security deed. The property subject to a lien is often referred to as collateral. Even if you do not reaffirm and your personal liability on the debt is discharged, your creditor may still have a right under the lien to take the collateral if you do not pay or default on the debt. If the collateral is personal property that is exempt or that the trustee has abandoned, you may be able to redeem the item rather than reaffirm the debt. To redeem, you make a single payment to the creditor equal to the current value of the collateral, as the parties agree or the court determines.
4. How soon do you need to enter into and file a reaffirmation agreement? If you decide to enter into a reaffirmation agreement, you must do so before you receive your discharge. After you have entered into a reaffirmation agreement and all parts of this form that require a signature have been signed, either you or the creditor should file it as soon as possible. The signed agreement must be filed with the court no later than 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors, so that the court will have time to schedule a hearing to approve the agreement if approval is required. However, the court may extend the time for filing, even after the 60-day period has ended.
5. Can you cancel the agreement? You may rescind (cancel) your Reaffirmation Agreement at any time before the bankruptcy court enters your discharge, or during the 60-day period that begins on the date your Reaffirmation Agreement is filed with the court, whichever occurs later. To rescind (cancel) your Reaffirmation Agreement, you must notify the creditor that your Reaffirmation Agreement is rescinded (or canceled). Remember that you can rescind the agreement, even if the court approves it, as long as you rescind within the time allowed.

6. When will this Reaffirmation Agreement be effective?

a. If you were represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement and

i. if the creditor is not a Credit Union, your Reaffirmation Agreement becomes effective when it is filed with the court unless the reaffirmation is presumed to be an undue hardship. If the Reaffirmation Agreement is presumed to be an undue hardship, the court must review it and may set a hearing to determine whether you have rebutted the presumption of undue hardship.

ii. if the creditor is a Credit Union, your Reaffirmation Agreement becomes effective when it is filed with the court.

b. If you were not represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement, the Reaffirmation Agreement will not be effective unless the court approves it. To have the court approve your agreement, you must file a motion. See Instruction 5, below. The court will notify you and the creditor of the hearing on your Reaffirmation Agreement. You must attend this hearing, at which time the judge will review your Reaffirmation Agreement. If the judge decides that the Reaffirmation Agreement is in your best interest, the agreement will be approved and will become effective. However, if your Reaffirmation Agreement is for a consumer debt secured by a mortgage, deed of trust, security deed, or other lien on your real property, like your home, you do not need to file a motion or get court approval of your Reaffirmation Agreement.

7. What if you have questions about what a creditor can do? If you have questions about reaffirming a debt or what the law requires, consult with the attorney who helped you negotiate this agreement. If you do not have an attorney helping you, you may ask the judge to explain the effect of this agreement to you at the hearing to approve the Reaffirmation Agreement. When this disclosure refers to what a creditor "may" do, it is not giving any creditor permission to do anything. The word "may" is used to tell you what might occur if the law permits the creditor to take the action.

B. INSTRUCTIONS

1. Review these Disclosures and carefully consider your decision to reaffirm. If you want to reaffirm, review and complete the information contained in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I above). If your case is a joint case, both spouses must sign the agreement if both are reaffirming the debt.
2. Complete the Debtor's Statement in Support of Reaffirmation Agreement (Part II above). Be sure that you can afford to make the payments that you are agreeing to make and that you have received a copy of the Disclosure Statement and a completed and signed Reaffirmation Agreement.
3. If you were represented by an attorney during the negotiation of your Reaffirmation Agreement, your attorney must sign and date the Certification By Debtor's Attorney (Part IV above).
4. You or your creditor must file with the court the original of this Reaffirmation Documents packet and a completed Reaffirmation Agreement Cover Sheet (Official Bankruptcy Form 27).
5. If you are not represented by an attorney, you must also complete and file with the court a separate document entitled "Motion for Court Approval of Reaffirmation Agreement" unless your Reaffirmation Agreement is for a consumer debt secured by a lien on your real property, such as your home. You can use Form B240B to do this.

C. DEFINITIONS

1. "Amount Reaffirmed" means the total amount of debt that you are agreeing to pay (reaffirm) by entering into this agreement. The total amount of debt includes any unpaid fees and costs that you are agreeing to pay that arose on or before the date of disclosure, which is the date specified in the Reaffirmation Agreement (Part I, Section B above). Your credit agreement may obligate you to pay additional amounts that arise after the date of this disclosure. You should consult your credit agreement to determine whether you are obligated to pay additional amounts that may arise after the date of this disclosure.
2. "Annual Percentage Rate" means the interest rate on a loan expressed under the rules required by federal law. The annual percentage rate (as opposed to the "stated interest rate") tells you the full cost of your credit including many of the creditor's fees and charges. You will find the annual percentage rate for your original agreement on the disclosure statement that was given to you when the loan papers were signed or on the monthly statements sent to you for an open end credit account such as a credit card.
3. "Credit Union" means a financial institution as defined in 12 U.S.C. § 461(b)(1)(A)(iv). It is owned and controlled by and provides financial services to its members and typically uses words like "Credit Union" or initials like "C.U." or "F.C.U." in its name.

Reaffirmation Documents

Introduction

A debtor in a bankruptcy case may decide to remain legally obligated to pay a debt that would otherwise be discharged in bankruptcy. This is called reaffirming a debt. Reaffirming a debt is voluntary; debtors are not required to reaffirm any debt.

The Bankruptcy Code allows debtors to reaffirm debts, but an agreement to reaffirm a debt will be enforceable despite the bankruptcy discharge only if it complies with specific procedures. Director's Form B240A (Reaffirmation Documents) includes the Reaffirmation Agreement, disclosures, and other documents necessary for a debtor to reaffirm a debt.

This form cannot be used with a separate, attached Reaffirmation Agreement because some of the required disclosures are contained in the Reaffirmation Agreement portion of the form, rather than in the Disclosure Statement portion of the form. Because § 524(k)(3)(J)(i) contemplates that a separate Reaffirmation Agreement may be used as long as the proper disclosures have been made, parties should draft their own documents, use Director's Form B240A/B ALT, or use other forms authorized by local courts if they want to use a separate attached Reaffirmation Agreement.

Applicable Law

The reaffirmation of debt is governed by 11 U.S.C. § 524(c), (d), and (k). A Reaffirmation Agreement is enforceable only if it complies with these Bankruptcy Code provisions. 11 U.S.C. § 524(c). For example, any agreement to reaffirm a dischargeable debt must be entered into before the debtor receives a discharge. 11 U.S.C. § 524(c)(1).

In addition, § 524(k) sets out extensive specific and detailed descriptions of the disclosures that a debtor must receive before or at the time the debtor signs the Reaffirmation Agreement. 11 U.S.C. § 524(c)(2). The required disclosures consist of the Reaffirmation Agreement, the Disclosure Statement, and other documents described in § 524(k). 11 U.S.C. § 524(k)(1). Disclosures may be "made in a different order and may use terminology different from that set forth in paragraphs (2) through (8)," with the exception of two terms - "Amount Reaffirmed" and "Annual Percentage Rate" - that must be used where indicated. 11 U.S.C. § 524(k)(2).

The January 2007 version of Director's Form B240A (now designed as B240A/B ALT) which implemented the reaffirmation disclosures and form requirements of the 2005 Bankruptcy Abuse Prevention and Consumer Protection Act, carefully tracked the statutory language and organization. As a result, the form was quite long and some of the most significant information needed for court review followed many pages of preliminary disclosures and information.

Based on the authority provided by 11 U.S.C. § 524(k)(2), this revised form organizes the required information in a different order, bringing information important to the court to the beginning of the document while directing the debtor's attention to pertinent disclosures and definitions that must be reviewed before entering into the Reaffirmation Agreement. It also

The Amount Reaffirmed in Part I.B., includes a blank in which to insert the date of the disclosures to provide a definite, identifiable termination point for the accrual of fees and costs. See 11 U.S.C. § 524(k)(3)(C)(ii).

Directions

- A. Describe the original agreement being reaffirmed.
- B. Fill in the total amount of the debt being reaffirmed. Fill in the date the disclosure was prepared.
- C. Fill in the Annual Percentage Rate, as determined under the appropriate method set out in 11 U.S.C. § 524(k)(3)(E). If more than one interest rate applies to the reaffirmed debt, the creditor may write in more than one rate. Check the appropriate type of rate for the loan.
- D. Indicate the repayment terms. The creditor may include additional lines if multiple balances are to be paid at different rates or if the form categories do not adequately cover the terms of this Reaffirmation Agreement. The court needs this information to review the Reaffirmation Agreement.

Part II: Your Statement in Support of Reaffirmation Agreement

A and B. If an attorney did not represent the debtor or if the creditor is not a credit union, fill out C.1. and C.2.

C.1.a-d. Fill in information about present income and expenses. Do not use income and expense information from the bankruptcy schedules unless it is identical to the present income and expenses. Calculate the amount available to pay the reaffirmed debt. Then check the appropriate box at the top of page 1.

C.2. Check whether the payments on the reaffirmed debt will impose an undue hardship on debtor or debtor's dependents. If the monthly income is less than the monthly expenses, the debtor must explain why reaffirming the debt will not cause an undue hardship. The debtor should identify any additional sources of funds to make the payments.

D. If the debtor is represented by an attorney and the creditor is a credit union, indicate whether the debtor believes that the reaffirmation agreement is in the debtor's financial interest and the debtor can afford to make the payments. Then check the box on page 1 that says, "No Presumption of Undue Hardship."

Part III: Certification by Debtors and Signatures of Parties

Any debtor (including any joint debtor) who agrees to reaffirm a debt must sign and date the certification. Fill in the creditor's name and address, along with the printed name of the creditor's representative who negotiated the Reaffirmation Agreement. The representative must sign and date the Reaffirmation Agreement.

Part IV: Certification by Debtor's Attorney (if any)

Fill out this certification if the debtor was represented by an attorney in negotiating the Reaffirmation Agreement. See 11 U.S.C. § 524(c)(3) and (k)(5).

Part V: Disclosure Statement and Instructions to Debtors

This part of the Reaffirmation Documents contains definitions, the additional required disclosures that are not included in the Reaffirmation Agreement itself, and instructions to the debtor.
